Official Update on 2020 “Wednesday Night Live” performances

We’d like to take this opportunity to thank all our fans, friends, and family for supporting us during this difficult and unprecedented time in our history. Our primary goal is, and always has been, to ensure a safe, fun, and memorable experience for our patrons during live events.

To that end, we regret to announce that we will not be holding any “Wednesday Night Live” performances during the months of May or June. We’re all on a living timeline - it changes weekly (in some instances, daily) and we must abide by certain standards to uphold our primary goals. We will continue to update you as circumstances develop over the coming weeks.

Again, thank you all for your continued support. Live music lives at the Budweiser Pavilion, and we will make sure that happens again as soon as is prudent.
